It always amazes me when I see young people with raw talent and passion.

~Laura Bell Bundy

What I've noticed about celebrities is, if they are really successful, they're more down-to-earth.

~Laura Bell Bundy

A lot of the music I listen to is indie rock. It's not on the radio.

~Laura Bell Bundy

Try to sing exactly like an artist you hear, and then all of the sudden, you'll feel what it feels like if you're singing properly, depending on who you're mimicking.

~Laura Bell Bundy

I'm inspired by having fun; I'm inspired by people.

~Laura Bell Bundy

I think I would rather want to create something new, but I really did enjoy doing that show. It was a really fun show to do.

~Laura Bell Bundy

You know, I had the music baskets and the writing basket. And I had the acting. And those eggs just hatched first, and the others were slow to incubate.

~Laura Bell Bundy

I always have plans to return to the stage. I leave myself very open. I think what would be more likely is if I did a limited run of something, whether it be a play or a musical.

~Laura Bell Bundy

I am trying so hard to live in the moment and enjoy it while it's happening, because it feels like a moving freight train that I just got on, and I'm trying not to look back and get dizzy!

~Laura Bell Bundy

I started to write a lot of ballads that were sultry and had a Norah Jones-for-country kind of feel. I wanted to bring elements of old soul music and old country music.

~Laura Bell Bundy

What I loved about country music when I was a kid was the Grand Ole Opry, was Hee Haw, was 360 degrees of entertainment.

~Laura Bell Bundy

Around 14, I was turned on to Shania, Reba, Merle Haggard, Garth Brooks, Trisha Yearwood... and I've followed it ever since.

~Laura Bell Bundy

I feel connected to a higher power when I'm making music or performing. There's a spiritual experience for me.

~Laura Bell Bundy

I listened to country music my whole life. I started writing music when I was a teenager. It all came out country.

~Laura Bell Bundy

I can't take the theater side out of myself.

~Laura Bell Bundy

When I was really little, I listened to Dolly Parton, Loretta Lynn, Barbara Mandrel, Crystal Gayle, Kenny Rogers, Willie Nelson, and Patsy Cline.

~Laura Bell Bundy

I kept writing all these ballads; they're me speaking about life. But how am I gonna do the live show I wanna do if I don't have something I can dance to?

~Laura Bell Bundy

I had a band with a girl in New York, and we would go around and do gigs. And then I happened to start getting work as an actress.

~Laura Bell Bundy

I feel really blessed to first of all have the opportunity to do music, and second of all to have it be going well.

~Laura Bell Bundy

When creating an album, one of the first things you have to think about is what you want your production style to be.
