The question really is how do we get Embassy Officers into the minds of the American business community. That is a much more difficult task than understanding a statistical matrix.

~Lawrence Eagleburger

Any Ambassador or Foreign Service Officer who has his or her head screwed on right knows that the U.S. position in the world is far more dependent on our ability to compete in world markets.

~Lawrence Eagleburger

There are sometimes problems for which there is no immediate solution, and there are sometimes problems for which there is no solution.

~Lawrence Eagleburger

Americans usually believe that nothing is impossible.

~Lawrence Eagleburger

There is a natural partnership between State and Commerce, and the American business community to work together to educate the United States about marketing overseas.

~Lawrence Eagleburger

The consequence of a world full of nuclear powers to me is so incomprehensible in terms of the dangers that that implies.

~Lawrence Eagleburger

My father was somewhat to the right of Genghis Khan.

~Lawrence Eagleburger

In the best of all worlds everyone in the Embassy is doing something to assist U.S. exports.

~Lawrence Eagleburger

One nuclear war is going to be the last nuclear - the last war, frankly, if it really gets out of hand. And I just don't think we ought to be prepared to accept that sort of thing.
