Skills come with age, but wisdom, I doubt it very, very much.

~Lawrence Weiner

The only art I'm interested in is the art I don't understand right away. If you understand it right away it really has no use except as nostalgia.

~Lawrence Weiner

Once you know about a work of mine you own it. There's no way I can climb inside somebody's head and remove it.

~Lawrence Weiner

Art that imposes conditions - human or otherwise - on the receiver for its appreciation in my eyes constitutes aesthetic fascism.

~Lawrence Weiner

All art is made from anger.

~Lawrence Weiner

Accreditation. The "doctorate of fine art." I've never heard something so stupid in my entire life.

~Lawrence Weiner

In my eyes, making art is very often about something that you don't know.

~Lawrence Weiner

I stopped painting, not because I didn't like painting; the sensuality of it was fun. But I wasn't able to get to the point I wanted to.

~Lawrence Weiner

You can't have a $2 million painting unless it's on the wall somewhere and somebody saw it.

~Lawrence Weiner

Art's supposed to build logic structures.

~Lawrence Weiner

Artists try to ask questions, and within our society, unless there are artists, those questions don't get asked. And everybody blames the market.

~Lawrence Weiner

There is a primacy of each individual object. And we'll see! That's the whole point of making sculpture, to present a question in a physical form to people.

~Lawrence Weiner

I only work in relation to what the work is about. Yes, of course, if the world's coming to an end I would basically try to get out of the way when the sky falls.

~Lawrence Weiner

Now "professional" seems to be whoever you went to school with. It constitutes your nuclear world. And that's the fault of the teachers; it's not the fault of the young artist.

~Lawrence Weiner
