

Lee Greenwood Quotes

People, Believe, Memorial Day, United States, America, Important, Land, Desolate, Theatre, Men, Matter, Roots, Higher, Peers, Joy, Doubt, Hands, Wife, Open Book, Grandparent

At their core, when things really matter, people see a need to turn to God for strength and protection.

~Lee Greenwood

The flag still stands for freedom and they can't take that away.

~Lee Greenwood

My personality is that I'm a human being like everybody else, just a citizen and a blue collar guy.

~Lee Greenwood

Some people may believe that their conscience is enough to guide them not to lie, be deceitful or do the other things God has commanded us not to do. I disagree.

~Lee Greenwood

I'm proud to be an American, where at least I know I'm free.

~Lee Greenwood

It bothers me to know there is the possibility that I as a Christian would be not only an underdog, but that I would be trodden upon if I claimed that I was a Christian.

~Lee Greenwood

The traditions of a nation are very important and the anthem written by Francis Scott Key in the early days of our nation should always be revered.

~Lee Greenwood

But I believe there is a decay that is eroding America, and as a result, God begins to disappear from our society.

~Lee Greenwood

Singing still brings me tremendous joy, the reception you get and you never know what people are going to share with you after the event.

~Lee Greenwood

When our forefathers put down roots in desolate places, the thing that allowed them to survive was that they had a faith to see them through the tough times.

~Lee Greenwood

But if we get to the point where more people do not believe in a God than who do believe in God, we will have a hollow legal system - we will have something without heart.

~Lee Greenwood

Cause there ain't no doubt I love this land, God Bless the U.S.A.

~Lee Greenwood

Historically, America has answered to a higher authority.

~Lee Greenwood

People who don't believe in God may have their own way of justifying some bad act they have committed.

~Lee Greenwood

The Constitution of the United States allows us to change; I don't have a problem with that.

~Lee Greenwood

My grandparents knew it was important that I understood Christianity and the Bible. But they never took me to church; they sent me to church.

~Lee Greenwood

When you put your hand on the Bible, you are saying something much stronger than just telling your peers that you're going to tell the truth.

~Lee Greenwood

I'm pretty much an open book.

~Lee Greenwood

Related Links:

- People Quotes
- Believe Quotes
- Memorial Day Quotes
- United States Quotes
- America Quotes
- Important Quotes
- Land Quotes
- Desolate Quotes
- Theatre Quotes
- Men Quotes
- Matter Quotes
- Roots Quotes
- Higher Quotes
- Peers Quotes
- Joy Quotes
- Doubt Quotes
- Hands Quotes
- Wife Quotes
- Open Book Quotes
- Grandparent Quotes