If your identity is found in Christ, then it matters less and less what people think of you.

~Leonard Sweet

What you do is your history. What you set in motion is your legacy.

~Leonard Sweet

The future is not something we enter. The future is something we create.

~Leonard Sweet

I only want to write one thing over the doorpost to my heart and life: *â€œ*Jesus Christ lives here.

~Leonard Sweet

The essence of leadership is relationship; influencing people to achieve things together that can't be achieved alone.

~Leonard Sweet

The strength of the church is not the strength of its institutions but the authenticity of its witness.

~Leonard Sweet

Stagnation is death. If you don't change, you die. It's that simple. It's that scary.

~Leonard Sweet

When I was learned, knowledge was everything. Now that I'm a learner, kindness is everything.

~Leonard Sweet

God did His most magnificent work while Adam was asleep. This episode contains an important insight: When man rests, God works.

~Leonard Sweet

Jesus invested everything he had in a team. The Bible knows nothing about solo ministry, only team ministry.

~Leonard Sweet

Too many Christians want to change the world not because they love the world but because they hate the world

~Leonard Sweet

The true leader makes each team member twice the person they were before.

~Leonard Sweet

When a Japanese manufacturer was asked by his North American counterpart, "What is the best language in which to do business?" the man responded: "My customer's language"

~Leonard Sweet

The greater the amount of knowledge you accumulate, the bigger your island gets, but the greater the shoreline of the unknown becomes. In short, the more you know, the more you know you don't know.

~Leonard Sweet

One can be a faithful disciple of Jesus Christ without denying the flickers of the sacred in followers of Yahweh, or Kali, or Krishna

~Leonard Sweet

People who minister worldwide to protect and conserve the environment are of no lower status than those who minister to plant churches.

~Leonard Sweet

When Jesus got to the point when most people today are thinking of retirement, he goes - 'time to save the world!'

~Leonard Sweet

The Chains of conformity click in tiresomely monotonous unison.

~Leonard Sweet

The teachings of Jesus begin in story and end in symbol - they begin in parable and end in us. These are not Bible stories that we learn; these are our stories.

~Leonard Sweet

The church must provide postmoderns with an alternity of rituals by which they can turn and tune to one another and feel connected to the cosmos.

~Leonard Sweet

Followers of Jesus don't so much see different things from anyone else as they see the same things differently.

~Leonard Sweet

The time to save God's Dream is now. The people to save God's Dream are you.

~Leonard Sweet

To imagine things other than they are is the essence of hope. It is also the stuff of revolution.

~Leonard Sweet

Leadership is the art of the future.

~Leonard Sweet

Two opposing gospels are fighting one another for the soul of our nation and, increasingly, the world: the gospel of consumption and the gospel of peace.

~Leonard Sweet

The "hole in the moral ozone" is really what's behind the hole in the ozone.

~Leonard Sweet

Hirsch and Ford believe that we've 'demonstrated' enough. It's now time for 'doing.' This book shows how to be missional 'Right Here, Right Now.'
