Sunshine, lollipops and rainbows, everything that's wonderful, Is sure to come your way

~Lesley Gore

I just kind of lived my life naturally and did what I wanted to do.

~Lesley Gore

Really you just gotta keep chugging along and keep a positive attitude and get through all the problems. You gotta face them, otherwise you don't get through.

~Lesley Gore

You can only bite off so much, so you gotta know what you want to do.

~Lesley Gore

Don't tell me what to do, don't tell me what to say. And please, when I go out with you, don't put me on display.

~Lesley Gore

It's my party and I'll cry if I want to.

~Lesley Gore

And I thought, you know, a little gender confusion makes a better person. A little adversity in life at an early age. It's character building.

~Lesley Gore

One night I saw them kissing at a party, so I kissed some other guy. Johnny jumped up and hit him, cause he still loved me, that's why.

~Lesley Gore

And that's what got me to the piano, that's what got me up in the morning: a blank piece of paper and a hope to have something by the end of the day.

~Lesley Gore

I think I turned to writing really just to wake up in the morning and be a musician and to have something to do, and feel like a musician every day even if I wasn't working.

~Lesley Gore

I think the record industry, by and large what's left of it, is still totally homophobic. I think it's much less so in the film industry now, but the record industry, it's always been a man's world.

~Lesley Gore

I can remember in the early 60s that there were a couple of really dynamic women performers at the time - Brenda Lee, there was Connie Francis.
