You can't rush good wine. It has to sit. And when you finally drink it, it's the bomb. It's worth the wait.

~Leslie Jones

People think I'm an overnight success. No. It's just that you all found me overnight.

~Leslie Jones

I take care of everybody. I'm either hugging you or making sure that you're not sick, because my backpack has every kind of medicine in it.

~Leslie Jones

When you're writing a sketch, it has to be surrounded by a situation. It can't just be out of the air.

~Leslie Jones

I'm really good at standup. I always win at standup.

~Leslie Jones

I didn't realize the age thing until I got hired and everybody was telling me I was f - -ing old.

~Leslie Jones

My job is to bring the tickle. I know what's funny.

~Leslie Jones

You have to always keep conditioning. My coach used to say, "You play like you practice." If you practice s - -ty, you're going to play s - -ty.

~Leslie Jones

I'm not leaving America because it doesn't support me.

~Leslie Jones

I had all the intentions of being the next Eddie Murphy.
