I'm not particularly fond of the Hamptons.

~Leven Rambin

A lot of hard work has to go into your career, and preparation, and being your best at all times.

~Leven Rambin

Everything is an experience. You learn something different from everything you do.

~Leven Rambin

I've never been the wilting flower. I've never been the girl who's subservient to a man.

~Leven Rambin

I'm so fascinated by the concept of teen pregnancy for some reason. Not that I condone it or promote it, but it's just a very real thing in our country and culture.

~Leven Rambin

It's been difficult to find roles that are independent, strong, and self-assured; I always say I can't play the princess. I'm not a pretty princess! I'm a tomboy.

~Leven Rambin

If I had a crush on a guy, my tactic was to tell them I had a crush on them. And they always thought it was super-cute, so it usually worked in my favor!

~Leven Rambin

I was like, 'Whoa, I'm auditioning for 'Hunger Games?'" That's like my dream come true. That's like a Trekkie auditioning for 'Star Trek.

~Leven Rambin

I like that New York sensibility where you can be edgy, but still super-glamorous.

~Leven Rambin

As a Christian, I think it's really important to find a man of God to trust and be supportive of me.

~Leven Rambin

When you're connected to the ocean, you really don't think about what's going on with your email or texts or any of that. You're just a lot more liberated.

~Leven Rambin
