

Lincoln Chafee Quotes

Party, World, Winning, Quality, War, America, Responsibility, College, Fighting, Success, Military, Children, President, Political, Presidential, Emotion, Students, Embrace, Strong, Consistency

In the executive branch, winning by a whisker is as good as winning in a landslide, but not so in the Senate.

~Lincoln Chafee

Israelis can be proud of the vibrant democracy that they have created, and I know that many Rhode Islanders share my deep appreciation for the close friendship between our two nations.

~Lincoln Chafee

Trust is built with consistency.

~Lincoln Chafee

The lack of fiscal responsibility is one of the main reasons I finally left my old Party.

~Lincoln Chafee

Anger's not a good emotion.

~Lincoln Chafee

Here is a bold embrace of internationalism. Let's join the rest of the world and go metric.

~Lincoln Chafee

In the world of diplomacy, some things are better left unsaid.

~Lincoln Chafee

Well, usually when you talk about a mandate, you're talking about an overwhelming win. I don't think by any measurement the 2004 election was an overwhelming win.

~Lincoln Chafee

Let me ask you: Should only children of the wealthy have access to quality early education? Should only children of the wealthy have access to a college degree? The answer - the only answer - is: no.

~Lincoln Chafee

I remember my Republican Party as fiscally conservative, as caring about the environment.

~Lincoln Chafee

Reform of the medical liability system should be considered as part of a comprehensive response to surging medical malpractice premiums that endanger Americans' access to quality medical care.

~Lincoln Chafee

Any political historian can give innumerable examples of one percenters who have gone on to success, maybe even Bill Clinton himself?

~Lincoln Chafee

I do believe that 2016 is going to be a great year for Democrats... because we are right on the key issues.

~Lincoln Chafee

American education is still the wonder of the world, and we must open the schoolhouse doors, not close them.

~Lincoln Chafee

Students of America, working families of America: President Obama will not turn his back on you.

~Lincoln Chafee

I didn't meddle. If I did meddle there wouldn't be all this violence. All this horrible sexism in games.

~Lincoln Chafee

I was born in 1953, so that's the Eisenhower administration.

~Lincoln Chafee

A strong, educated middle class is what made America the greatest country in the world.

~Lincoln Chafee

I had supported Governor George W. Bush over Senator John McCain in the 2000 Rhode Island presidential primary.

~Lincoln Chafee

America stood at the summit of power, emerging from the Cold War as an economic, cultural and military force without equal.

~Lincoln Chafee

Related Links:

- Party Quotes
- World Quotes
- Winning Quotes
- Quality Quotes
- War Quotes
- America Quotes
- Responsibility Quotes
- College Quotes
- Fighting Quotes
- Success Quotes
- Military Quotes
- Children Quotes
- President Quotes
- Political Quotes
- Presidential Quotes
- Emotion Quotes
- Students Quotes
- Embrace Quotes
- Strong Quotes
- Consistency Quotes