There was a golden retriever who saved countless lives on September 11 by going back in to find people. His companion was in a wheelchair. He got him out and kept going back in to save others.

~Linda Blair

No animal has to suffer for me to live.

~Linda Blair

Of all the projects I've worked on, I've never worked with another director like Billy Friedkin. I think he's a genius.

~Linda Blair

We have a deep need to affiliate, to be around people, and no creature on earth spends as much of its life depending on others as we do

~Linda Blair

The animals are right here, right in front of us. And how we treat these companions is a test.

~Linda Blair

One of the reasons I don't have kids is because I think people would have been very unfair to them. Think of it. You're still asking me questions about The Exorcist.

~Linda Blair

Its difficult to understand why people don't realize that pets are gifts to mankind

~Linda Blair

Modeling was pretty difficult back then. I did not find the business something that I had an interest in. I wanted to be a veterinarian.

~Linda Blair

Turkeys are misunderstood. Once I adopted turkeys, I understood this large bird to be a great companion.

~Linda Blair

I had no way to have a sense of humor about The Exorcist. I didn't know how. And this enabled me.

~Linda Blair

Kids shouldn't see all the violence they do these days. But the industry just doesn't care.

~Linda Blair

I work more than people realize. It doesn't mean you always see the project. Look at how many stations we have. I did a couple films in Australia. I like the movies.

~Linda Blair

I like having little kids look at me. It's fun. They make these little faces.

~Linda Blair

If you know me, I don't live in this dismal world. I mean, I like to have fun. My friends are comedians.

~Linda Blair

I can't answer for my mother. She was a very private person, and did not discuss a lot of things.

~Linda Blair

It's a masterpiece [The Exorcist]. This is an honor. I know you may not think so, but it really is. How many movies in our lifetime? This is an honor.

~Linda Blair

I've lived through what seems to most - and myself - many lives.

~Linda Blair

For me reading the book [The Exorcist], I had the same questions that everyone else had. How does she jump up and down off the bed? How does her head spin around? How does she throw up?

~Linda Blair

If I had children, I would be very selfish. I wouldn't be out doing things. But by not having kids, it makes me freer to travel the world and talk about things I feel are important.
