If slaughterhouses had glass walls, everyone would be vegetarian. We feel better about ourselves and better about the animals, knowing we're not contributing to their pain.

~Linda McCartney

Anyone who cares about the Earth - really cares - must stop eating animals.

~Linda McCartney

Cooking for six people every day is like having a cafe.

~Linda McCartney

I think hard drugs are disgusting. But I must say, I think marijuana is pretty lightweight.

~Linda McCartney

If you see something that moves you, and then snap it, you keep a moment.

~Linda McCartney

I would travel only by horse, if I had the choice.

~Linda McCartney

He is not in the least arrogant. The last album was written in a room in Sussex. He was like a mad professor, spending all day writing and then coming out with brilliant tunes.

~Linda McCartney

My mother was killed in a plane crash, so I hate travelling in planes. Death is so unexpected. I would actually rather stay at home and not go anywhere.

~Linda McCartney

I don't need a lot of money. Simplicity is the answer for me.

~Linda McCartney

We think we want to do something and when it comes to it, we don't.
We don't like to commit.

~Linda McCartney

Our kids haven't any airs about them. I don't like posh kids who don't like dirty dolls or expect a chauffeur every time they go out.

~Linda McCartney

When I first toured with Wings things that were said about me were true
- I did sing out of tune.

~Linda McCartney

Oppression won't win, the light comes from within.

~Linda McCartney

Most people if I like their music, I can get good pictures.

~Linda McCartney

I won't be having any more kids, though. Four is enough.

~Linda McCartney

There's the feeling, and the right reading - that's all you really need to know; the right light and the feeling.

~Linda McCartney

But I wanted marriage for myself. I was not calculating about it. I wish I was more calculating.

~Linda McCartney
