There needs to be passion behind what you're doing or it's not worth it.

~Lisa Edelstein

There are some great shows that come and go really fast, either because the network doesn't give them a chance or they just don't grab on to the psyche of the country quickly enough.

~Lisa Edelstein

My opinion's no more important than anyone else's. It's just that I have the ability to have access to more ears when I speak because of my job.

~Lisa Edelstein

You know, it's scary when you sign onto a pilot of a series because, as much as you want the series to go, you also want it to be a character that you'd be interested in playing for a long time.

~Lisa Edelstein

Well, I don't think characters change. I think they become more revealed. I don't think you really can change a character on a show.

~Lisa Edelstein

The hardest part about being vegan is shoes. I mean, really, that's the only difficult part, finding shoes that don't have leather on them.

~Lisa Edelstein

Everybody in the world has a different reason for wishing they could say things that most people know not to say.

~Lisa Edelstein

I like adventures and people who live with the volume on high.

~Lisa Edelstein

Well, I don't think just because people are in a relationship that they're happy. I don't think relationships necessarily make people happy. You just are happy or you're not happy.

~Lisa Edelstein

It's always weird to shoot when you're really basically not wearing anything.

~Lisa Edelstein

I don't think that anyone can prepare for raising a child. I think it's one of those jobs that is far more overwhelming than you could ever expect and far more satisfying than you can ever expect.

~Lisa Edelstein

I never intended on moving to 'The Good Wife' permanently, but in terms of a next move and something to do to make myself feel good, this was a great opportunity.
