~Lisa Guerrero

We're starting to push the envelope in terms of the expectations, and you can also have your own style, personality and sense of humor, because now we're allowed to.

~Lisa Guerrero

So my dad raised me, and he's a huge football fan.

~Lisa Guerrero

I know I'll be under a spotlight, I know I'll be under the microscope.

~Lisa Guerrero

When I found out I got this job, I cried, of course - I'm a girly-girl - and then I called my dad, and he cried, too. On so many levels, this is a thrill for me.

~Lisa Guerrero

In terms of broadcasting, you have to make decisions about where you want to spend your time.

~Lisa Guerrero

I'm comfortable with my femininity, and I don't try to change what I look like just because I'm reporting on football at the end of the night.

~Lisa Guerrero

When I'm anchoring, I miss chasing stories in the field.

~Lisa Guerrero

Constantly there's a credibility issue; you're judged on how you look. If you look good, people assume you aren't credible. It's a battle you'll always fight if you're on TV and a female.

~Lisa Guerrero

You just have to hope that they'll grant you an interview.

~Lisa Guerrero
