I learned from my mistakes, I was able to accept the things that were my fault and to be able to grow from that. You have to be able to see growth from your experiences and I've done that.

~LisaRaye McCoy-Misick

Some men are afraid of women who challenge them and demand respect and answers. That's who I am and will always be.

~LisaRaye McCoy-Misick

It is much easier to fight through this thing called life with someone, as opposed to fighting alone. I absolutely want to be a wife and to come home to somebody who I know adores me.

~LisaRaye McCoy-Misick

I know how to play comedy when it's needed. So even when it's really not there, my facial expressions are really great. I have a lot of facial expressions in my face, you know.

~LisaRaye McCoy-Misick

I'm a talkative person because I like to get to know a person and I like you to get to know me.

~LisaRaye McCoy-Misick

I have very few friends. I'm an associate of everybody and friend of none.

~LisaRaye McCoy-Misick

I'm not into younger men. A couple of years younger, maybe, but I'm not a cougar. I'm not a panther either.

~LisaRaye McCoy-Misick

Growing up, I stayed in a child's place. My father was murdered when I was 20. I was a model and never had a real job and my parents took care of me.

~LisaRaye McCoy-Misick

I intimidate a lot of men, because I've done a lot. I'm established. I'm successful.

~LisaRaye McCoy-Misick

When I was younger, I thought LisaRaye sounded so country, but I've come to really appreciate my family-given name. I was named after my father, David Ray McCoy, and I'm totally a daddy's girl.
