Photography is the easiest art, which perhaps makes it the hardest.

~Lisette Model

I am a passionate lover of the snapshot, because of all photographic images it comes closest to truth.

~Lisette Model

Photography through the camera is an instrument of detection. We photograph not only what we know, but also what we don't know.

~Lisette Model

I have often been asked what I wanted to prove by my photographs. The answer is, I don't want to prove anything. They prove to me, and I am the one who gets the lesson.

~Lisette Model

Never take a picture of anything you are not passionately interested in.

~Lisette Model

It is the surface I am interested in. Because the surface is the inside.

~Lisette Model

Photography starts with the projection of the photographer, his understanding of life and himself into the picture.

~Lisette Model

New images surround us everywhere. They are invisible only because of sterile routine convention and fear.

~Lisette Model

Don't shoot til the subject hits you in the pit of your stomach.

~Lisette Model

They say my prints are bad, darling they should see my negatives

~Lisette Model

Speed, the fundamental condition of the activities of our day is the power of photography, indeed the modern art of today, the art of the split second.
