The idea of choosing something that you want to be, that you identify as, at a young age and pursuing that without question - for me that was acting.

~Lola Kirke

There's something really natural to me about being what they call in the business a "hyphenate." Being a musician-actor or writer-musician-actor.

~Lola Kirke

Making music is so much more self-motivated. It's my own music. It's my own time. I don't have a team around me that's helped me make everything.

~Lola Kirke

Aligning my music with something that feels morally and politically passionate to me feels good.

~Lola Kirke

I'm going to be a better actor, or I'm going to try to be a better actor. I'm going to try to be a better musician. I'm going to be an artist instead of just this one thing.

~Lola Kirke

When I have no idea what to do with how I'm feeling, I generally make a song out of it.

~Lola Kirke

I love acting so much, but listening to music and making music has been the greatest savior for me.

~Lola Kirke

I realized that I really didn't like the sound of the ukulele so much so I started playing the guitar.

~Lola Kirke

I had no kind of work ethic and I always felt that music - especially rock 'n' roll - was a more for boys.

~Lola Kirke

Growing up with my dad being a musician, it seemed like a male centric world to me. I just didn't know many girls playing guitar.

~Lola Kirke

All my best girlfriends play guitar now, which is kind of a funny world to live in.

~Lola Kirke

Perhaps like attracts like, and that's why I found myself in a circle of women who are so passionate about making music.

~Lola Kirke

It takes a lot of courage to be a performer.

~Lola Kirke

You perform the thing that you made, that's inside of you, and to subject that to any kind of scrutiny is terrifying. It's still terrifying to me.
