

Loni Anderson Quotes

Smoking, Marijuana, Cigarette, Daughter, Mother, Young, Disease, Thinking, People, Hands, Teacher, Acting, Cancer, Mom, Government, Limits, Should Have, Take Me, Grew Up, Terrible

I have an education degree from the University of Minnesota, and I was a teacher for about a minute.

~Loni Anderson

My grandmother was a teacher, my sister was a teacher, my daughter was a teacher and is now a superintendent in northern California, and my son-in-law is a high school principal. I am surrounded.

~Loni Anderson

Your lungs are changed forever from your first cigarette.

~Loni Anderson

I started acting when I was 10, doing musical theater. I was a brunette at that time. I was always cast in all the exotic parts.

~Loni Anderson

You're always better off if you quit smoking; it's never too late.

~Loni Anderson

My memory of my mom is a wine glass in one hand and a cigarette in the other. She was a runway fashion model, and she was quite a glamorous woman.

~Loni Anderson

I'd had my daughter when I was a teenager - I took my daughter to college with me.

~Loni Anderson

My daughter teases me once in a while saying, Remember when you used to be my mother and you had black hair?

~Loni Anderson

I've always been very involved in anything that had to do with lung disease or cancer.

~Loni Anderson

My sister and I are both diagnosed with second-hand smoke syndromes. We have never smoked, but we grew up with second-hand smoke our entire lives.

~Loni Anderson

Impotence is one of the major hazards of cigarette smoking.

~Loni Anderson

My dad had emphysema and both of my parents had chronic bronchitis and ended up with cancers - all smoking related.

~Loni Anderson

If somebody invented cigarettes today, the government would not legalize them.

~Loni Anderson

It's amazing to me that young people will still pick up a cigarette.

~Loni Anderson

My mom started smoking when she was 11. She went to the hill next door to try her first cigarette. She set the entire hill on fire, but it didn't deter her.

~Loni Anderson

Three cigarettes in, your body already craves it. It is that addictive.

~Loni Anderson

In the movies, Bette Davis lights two cigarettes and hands the second one to James Cagney. It was just so glamorous and romantic.

~Loni Anderson

I've been working with the National Lung Health Education Program to raise awareness about Chronic Obstructive Pulmonary Disease.

~Loni Anderson

... I learned the hard way that just as I no longer have to save anyone, neither do I have to be saved.

~Loni Anderson

There's nothing glamorous about being dead.

~Loni Anderson

There is no cure for emphysema, but you can start treating it and have a better quality of life.

~Loni Anderson

They almost ran me off the road several times. There are so many chances that they take to get the right photo.

~Loni Anderson

I talk about acting to students making the transition from high school to UCLA. Kids going into this profession really need to know the reality of it.

~Loni Anderson

Look up the definition of rejection in the dictionary, get really comfortable with it, and then maybe you can go into acting.

~Loni Anderson

The theater is where I belonged; I simply wanted to be an actress my whole life.

~Loni Anderson

I think you should not limit yourself to dating somebody older or younger.

~Loni Anderson

Smoking is related to practically every terrible thing that can happen to you.

~Loni Anderson

I am the odd man out in the family.

~Loni Anderson

Once you are hooked, smoking is harder to quit than heroin.

~Loni Anderson

Look at any black-and-white movie; everybody is smoking.

~Loni Anderson

When women smoke, it is hard for them to quit because they are so worried about their weight; it's a vanity issue and a mindset.

~Loni Anderson

Young people think that nothing bad will ever happen to them.

~Loni Anderson

Almost every person over 45, and definitely those who have ever smoked, should have a spirometry test.

~Loni Anderson

Who says there can't be more than one very attractive woman on a show without it becoming CHARLIE'S ANGELS?

~Loni Anderson

Related Links:

- Smoking Quotes
- Marijuana Quotes
- Cigarette Quotes
- Daughter Quotes
- Mother Quotes
- Young Quotes
- Disease Quotes
- Thinking Quotes
- People Quotes
- Hands Quotes
- Teacher Quotes
- Acting Quotes
- Cancer Quotes
- Mom Quotes
- Government Quotes
- Limits Quotes
- Should Have Quotes
- Take Me Quotes
- Grew Up Quotes
- Terrible Quotes