If I am going to get in a cab to go home, and I see a sign for an open house, I will go in. I like real estate because I am the boss.

~Lorraine Bracco

I am the boss of me. You can't change anyone else. Women think they can. But you know what? You can't.

~Lorraine Bracco

I was so busy fighting and so busy trying to keep everything above water that I didn't realize I was spiraling downward with nowhere to go.

~Lorraine Bracco

I have no problem with women in the military, if that's what they want to do.

~Lorraine Bracco

I learned nothing while I was in school.

~Lorraine Bracco

Sometimes there's one person in the audience laughing hysterically, and it's so much fun. You end up playing the entire play to them.

~Lorraine Bracco

My family was blue collar, a middle-class kind of thing. My father was born in Detroit, Italian-American. My mother is English. She acted on the stage with Diana Dors. Her parents were French.

~Lorraine Bracco

The truth in acting is that we are all hired help. We are a commodity. There is no difference between being an actor and pork bellies.

~Lorraine Bracco

I don't think I am narcissistic. I think I have low self-esteem.

~Lorraine Bracco

It's hard to keep a play alive moment-to-moment, you know? But there's another part of it that I really love, which is that you never know.

~Lorraine Bracco

I was lucky to live 10 years in France, so I learned how to eat and drink there.

~Lorraine Bracco

Everything was coming my way, but I was going down. I was painfully empty.

~Lorraine Bracco

I am funny. No one else thinks I am funny. But I am funny.

~Lorraine Bracco

I never bought a stock in my life. I don't understand it. To me it is like Chinese.
