When I was in my 20s, I thought that being known for 'Swimming Pool' was kind of a burden. Like, OK, everyone thinks I am this tanned bimbo and I was having problems coping with that image.

~Ludivine Sagnier

In 'Swimming Pool,' all the colors are very warm, sunny, the pool and all that. In 'Love Crime,' everything is so cold, and it's all inside skyscrapers.

~Ludivine Sagnier

I don't act to be popular, or see my face on the cover of magazines every time I go out to get coffee. I don't want to think about me all the time, and what I look like.

~Ludivine Sagnier

As an actress, I'm supposed to create something from head to toes, with clues, with lines, with shapes, and even with that power, I felt lost and not in control.

~Ludivine Sagnier

I hate to recreate the whole world into my imagination.

~Ludivine Sagnier

I would love to meet some directors, and why not do some other movies in America? But, I'm not obsessed with this idea. I'm feeling very free in Europe.

~Ludivine Sagnier

I'm not interested in making money, or being wealthy enough to have a villa in Beverly Hills, because in Paris I don't need that much money.

~Ludivine Sagnier

It's funny how human beings are so entertained by crimes.

~Ludivine Sagnier

Having a movie that lasts and makes your image imprinted into the history of cinema, it's very positive.

~Ludivine Sagnier

I really have problems with horror movies. I don't watch them. It's a feeling I don't want to have in cinema. I'm too reactive. It's too draining to watch that kind of movie.

~Ludivine Sagnier

Good characters are rare. As long as I find one or two a year, I'm happy.

~Ludivine Sagnier

'Swimming Pool' was a very important moment for me because the character was written for me.

~Ludivine Sagnier

You know, when you start, especially with me, I didn't really know I was going to be a movie actress. I thought I was going to do theater.
