Education is extremely important to the Hispanic community, as well as faith, and certainly working hard.

~Luis Fortuno

Bilingualism opens doors and provides opportunity to our children so they can shine and become successful in a labor market that is increasingly competitive and globalized.

~Luis Fortuno

Hardworking Americans are fighting every day to provide for themselves and their families, and leave a more prosperous country for the next generation.

~Luis Fortuno

Over 90 percent of parents in Puerto Rico want their children to be totally fluent in English.

~Luis Fortuno

When I came into office, I could have kicked the can down the road for a little while, or I could do the right thing.

~Luis Fortuno

Some people called me a fascist. That's mostly over, but there will be more attacks from the unions.

~Luis Fortuno

It is wrong to believe that Hispanics are Democrats. Hispanics are traditionally and historically conservative, not just socially conservative, but fiscally conservative.

~Luis Fortuno

The GOP can't even envision winning the White House if we lose a significant percentage of the Hispanic vote.

~Luis Fortuno

We cannot continue to close our eyes to the fact that we have to truly embrace green jobs, new technologies and alternative sources of energy.

~Luis Fortuno

In doing what I'm doing, you have to be sensitive to the fact that you're not dealing with numbers, you're dealing with people. And I will continue to be sensitive to that.

~Luis Fortuno

Get government out of our way, and let freedom and the spirit of the American people shine through.

~Luis Fortuno

I watched Reagan turn around the country by lowering taxes and controlling spending, and I'm applying the same principles.

~Luis Fortuno

I came into the Republican party in 1980, when I was a college student at Georgetown.

~Luis Fortuno

I came into office to do what was correct, not to see what was politically expedient to get re-elected.

~Luis Fortuno

I resent Washington telling states, or the residents of those states, what to do and what to think.

~Luis Fortuno

Republicans cannot continue to oppose every Hispanic issue.

~Luis Fortuno

I think there is a lot of fat in the government.

~Luis Fortuno

I supported the stimulus package.
