When I was a kid, I was at a bowling alley and I ran into a soda machine. I still have the scar on my right eyebrow obviously.

~Luke Perry

I think that sometimes kids use the show as a jumping off point for talking about things with their parents.

~Luke Perry

I have a girlfriend, but I don't really want to talk about her. I won't name her. She isn't in show business, has nothing to do with it. So I'd rather just keep her out of it.

~Luke Perry

It's hard and sometimes it's scary. It still amazes my mother. I went home for Christmas one year and there were fans all over the front lawn, hoping to see me.

~Luke Perry

I was something of a prankster. One time I put a ski mask on my head and used a fake gun on the school secretary so that I could get some of my friends out of detention.

~Luke Perry

I don't think what I have to say is that important.

~Luke Perry

I always felt like something of an outsider. But I identified with people up on the screen. That made me feel like I wanted to be up on the screen too. I felt like eventually I would get there.

~Luke Perry

I'm not much of a matchmaker. I think people have to make their own choices and mistakes and all that stuff.

~Luke Perry

There's a big difference between me and a real, legitimate working hand, or a world-champion rodeo cowboy. I play 'em, and I aspire to be like that, but those guys are tough.

~Luke Perry

I open to anything... just about anything.

~Luke Perry

My high school was nothing like West Beverly High, let me tell you. I grew up in Fredericktown, Ohio.

~Luke Perry

I knew that I was going to do Westerns. I like 'em.

~Luke Perry

When I was a kid, I just devoured TV 24 hours a day. Now that it's actually available 24 hours a day, I'm usually busy doing other stuff. But I do watch TV when I can.

~Luke Perry

I go four- wheeling in my truck. I also like to fish, cook, do stuff around my house. I even studied fencing for awhile.
