The main part of the house is a deep red and I have butterscotch carpet. And I have a bathroom with leopard skin floor, wallpaper and toilet.

~Macy Gray

I have a bronze statue of myself, naked. I have these really big curls and water comes out of every curl. It's hot.

~Macy Gray

Whatever your image is, it's probably not you, but it affords you the freedom to live up to it.

~Macy Gray

You don't have to be a rock star - if you don't like the situation you're in, you don't have to settle for it.

~Macy Gray

I want to be as famous as midnight. As powerful as a gun. As loved as a pizza.

~Macy Gray

I'm really demanding. No girl really wants just a guy. You want a prince, you want Jesus. So when he comes around and his name is, like, Steve, what are you supposed to do?

~Macy Gray

Becoming famous and selling a lot of records doesn't change a thing.

~Macy Gray

I try to say goodbye and I choke
Try to walk away and I stumble
Though I try to hide it, it's clear
My world crumbles when you are not here

~Macy Gray

I've never met anyone that is their image.

~Macy Gray

You could either go the traditional way or the other way. I went the other way.

~Macy Gray

I think I get misinterpreted and misunderstood a lot.

~Macy Gray

When you're little all the things that are quirky and weird about you and that people laugh at, you find out are the things that are going to get you through

~Macy Gray

My voice is definitely a big present for me from God, because it's not like I can even take credit for it.

~Macy Gray

I just love being on stage and I love making music, and as far as - it's great for narcissism, because you have all those people screaming out your name.

~Macy Gray

I'd like to be Queen Elizabeth.

~Macy Gray

I write in the studio.

~Macy Gray

Being God would be the ultimate.
