Don't let anyone rob you of your imagination, your creativity, or your curiosity. It's your place in the world; it's your life. Go on and do all you can with it, and make it the life you want to live.

~Mae Jemison

Never limit yourself because of others' limited imagination; never limit others because of your own limited imagination.

~Mae Jemison

You have the right to be involved. You have something important to contribute, and you have to take the risk to contribute it.

~Mae Jemison

Greatness can be captured in one word: lifestyle. Life is God's gift to you, style is what you make of it.

~Mae Jemison

Never be limited by other people's limited imaginations.

~Mae Jemison

The thing that I have done throughout my life is to do the best job that I can and to be me.

~Mae Jemison

What we find is that if you have a goal that is very, very far out, and you approach it in little steps, you start to get there faster. Your mind opens up to the possibilities.

~Mae Jemison

We look at science as something very elite, which only a few people can learn. That's just not true. You just have to start early and give kids a foundation. Kids live up, or down, to expectations.

~Mae Jemison

When God made the color purple, God was just showing off.

~Mae Jemison

I always knew I'd go to space.

~Mae Jemison

Science provides an understanding of a universal experience, and arts provides a universal understanding of a personal experience.

~Mae Jemison

The arts and sciences are avatars of human creativity.

~Mae Jemison

I wanted to be a professional dancer for a period of time, and I did a lot of dancing and choreography and got paid for it.

~Mae Jemison

Some of the most fun people I know are scientists.

~Mae Jemison

My parents were comfortable with me exploring areas that they were not proficient in. Some parents just aren't comfortable with that.

~Mae Jemison

As an astronaut, you have a very defined set of tasks to do. Those tasks may require you to work 60, 70 or 80 hours a week.
