

Maggie Gallagher Quotes

*School, Teacher, Europe, America, Sex, Children, Marriage, Suicide, Desire, Government, Oregon, Jesus, Culture, Rebel, Teaching, Unions, Nice,
Discrimination, Parent, Jobs*

The tragedy of the civil rights movement is that just as it achieved the beginning of the end of racial segregation, white educated elites became swept up in the glamour of the sexual revolution.

~Maggie Gallagher

In Europe, it appears that in the name of democracy, elites are pursuing an autocratic, centralized power, seeking economic control and social regimentation.

~Maggie Gallagher

Mothers are the people who love us for no good reason, and those of us who are mothers know it's the most exquisite love of all.

~Maggie Gallagher

Of all the hard jobs around, one of the hardest is being a good teacher.

~Maggie Gallagher

Democratic forms of government are vulnerable to mass prejudice, the so-called tyranny of the majority.

~Maggie Gallagher

Oregon is the only state in the union that facilitates suicide.

~Maggie Gallagher

For faithful Catholics, communion is not just a nice ritual: It is the body and blood of Jesus Christ, and the ultimate sign of our willingness to be incorporated into the church.

~Maggie Gallagher

To imply that religious believers have no right to engage moral questions in the public square or at the ballot is simply to establish a Reichian secularism as our state faith.

~Maggie Gallagher

Getting married is the boldest and most idealistic thing that most of us will ever do.

~Maggie Gallagher

When a marriage culture fails, sexual desire no longer unites; instead it fragments.

~Maggie Gallagher

In the '60s, parents were told to let their teens rebel, explore their boundaries. Increasingly the same message is being given to the parents of tweens.

~Maggie Gallagher

Charter schools have a far higher proportion of teachers who are not certified.

~Maggie Gallagher

Europe, which gave us the idea of same-sex marriage, is a dying society, with birthrates 50 percent below replacement.

~Maggie Gallagher

It is not discrimination to treat different things differently.

~Maggie Gallagher

When governments become large, voters cannot exercise close oversight, otherwise known as political power.

~Maggie Gallagher

No law can give or take away the choice to commit suicide.

~Maggie Gallagher

Black America knows better than anyone else the high price children pay for the sexual agendas of adults.

~Maggie Gallagher

I am just an ordinary Catholic.

~Maggie Gallagher

Whatever their defects, Christian fundamentalists have lived peacefully among us in America for several hundred years.

~Maggie Gallagher

Marketers are out there trying to figure out how to get your money out of your child.

~Maggie Gallagher

I regret the whole worlds that will never come into existence, the children, the grandchildren, all the human possibilities that never were and never will be.

~Maggie Gallagher

Same-sex marriage is not the future.

~Maggie Gallagher

Optimism is America's birthright.... There is no social problem Americans dare not attack. No problem, that is, except one: about marriage, and marriage alone, we despair.

~Maggie Gallagher

Related Links:

- School Quotes
- Teacher Quotes
- Europe Quotes
- America Quotes
- Sex Quotes
- Children Quotes
- Marriage Quotes
- Suicide Quotes
- Desire Quotes
- Government Quotes
- Oregon Quotes
- Jesus Quotes
- Culture Quotes
- Rebel Quotes
- Teaching Quotes
- Unions Quotes
- Nice Quotes
- Discrimination Quotes
- Parent Quotes
- Jobs Quotes