

Maggie Nelson Quotes

Thinking, Identity, People, Writing, Art, Loneliness, Believe, Girl, Trying, Motherhood, Solitude, Granted, Culture, Mom, Enough, Book, Bird, Distinction, Gender, Beautiful

I don't think there's any formula for what makes great art.

~Maggie Nelson

Art to me is not precious enough that I feel territorial about what the word gets applied to. Conversations about what counts as art and what doesn't doesn't captivate my attention very much.

~Maggie Nelson

It's a lot easier to write about people when you're not living with them!

~Maggie Nelson

We're all human beings with bodily needs living within a system. We don't need to prove that we're not a part of the fabric of the culture in order to want to change it.

~Maggie Nelson

I don't ever believe in violence as a kind of medicine.

~Maggie Nelson

In life and art, there are distinctions to be made between what an act of cruelty consists of.

~Maggie Nelson

Related Links:

- Thinking Quotes
- Identity Quotes
- People Quotes
- Writing Quotes
- Art Quotes
- Loneliness Quotes
- Believe Quotes
- Girl Quotes
- Trying Quotes
- Motherhood Quotes
- Solitude Quotes
- Granted Quotes
- Culture Quotes
- Mom Quotes
- Enough Quotes
- Book Quotes
- Bird Quotes
- Distinction Quotes
- Gender Quotes
- Beautiful Quotes