Education technology and school construction go together. Modernization, updating education facilities, and making a capital investment in education are all included.

~Major Owens

High gas prices are eating away at consumers disposal income and could lead to a further economic downturn, especially for those whose livelihood depend on gasoline and diesel fuel.

~Major Owens

Excitement in education and student productivity, the ability to get a result that you want from students, go together and cannot be separated.

~Major Owens

Competition is such a virtue, and everybody's so busy competing, they have no time for compassion.

~Major Owens

It is very difficult to get legislation passed. But then the danger always is that you have no power at all if you do not exercise constant power.

~Major Owens

I have a great deal of respect and admiration for people who put themselves on the line.

~Major Owens

People's lives have to change as a result of this legislation.

~Major Owens

You have no power at all if you do not exercise constant power.

~Major Owens

Children are already accustomed to a world that moves faster and is more exciting than anything a teacher in front of a classroom can do.

~Major Owens

We can close the gap and improve what happens in the classroom by using educational technology that is the same high quality everywhere.

~Major Owens

We can not wait until we have enough trained people willing to work at a teacher's salary and under conditions imposed upon teachers in order to improve what happens in the classroom.

~Major Owens

The first place to start is on enforcement. We who got the ADA passed did the hard part, the heavy lifting.

~Major Owens

Even if gas prices fall, consumers will continue to be gouged at the pump the only thing that we can be sure rises faster than the price of gasoline is the skyrocketing profits of oil companies.

~Major Owens

Education technology is very important because we have a massive challenge in public schools.

~Major Owens

In preparation for it, we need to have folks who are trained, we need facilities, equipment and supplies, that are going to be built into our society, and we are going to spend a lot of money on it.

~Major Owens

Therefore, you are not training young people for the world of today and the world of tomorrow unless you are doing proven technology training. That is one of the reasons I'm so concerned.

~Major Owens

We need to get ready for a world where terrorism will not ever fully go away.

~Major Owens

We can do it better, more consistently, and in the end, it will cost us less because the students that we produce will be superior to those without technology experience.

~Major Owens

Washington has been ignoring this issue for too long.
