You shouldn't have to leave your neighborhood to live in a better one.

~Majora Carter

We've got to decide that we want to live in a world that is sane and happy and healthy, and that everyone deserves that.

~Majora Carter

Environmental justice [means that] no community should be saddled with more environmental burdens and less environmental benefits than any other.

~Majora Carter

To me, charity often is just about giving, because you're supposed to, or because it's what you've always done " or it's about giving until it hurts.

~Majora Carter

Race and class are extremely reliable indicators as to where one might find the good stuff, like parks and trees, and where one might find the bad stuff, like power plants and waste facilities.

~Majora Carter

If we are going to be part of the solution, we have to engage the problems.

~Majora Carter

Neither the Destruction of the Ninth Ward Nor the South Bronx Was Inevitable

~Majora Carter

Sustainable South Bronx advocates for environmental justice through sustainable environmental and economic development projects.

~Majora Carter

We want to bring enterprise back to blighted urban areas. People there have been told nothing is ever going to change. The policy makers may feel the same way.
