You talked about national identity cards and the terrorism bill. We have made a government that has grown used to viewing us as subjects, has grown used to seeing its role as commanding us.

~Malcolm Wallop

We don't need a nation that has national identity cards.

~Malcolm Wallop

Government, which does not and did not grant us our rights, must not now seek to deny them by using fear as its justification.

~Malcolm Wallop

I'm a big supporter of immigration.

~Malcolm Wallop

I don't think the only place to fight for freedom is in the halls of Congress.

~Malcolm Wallop

It's insanity for a party that believes in freedom to allow some Republicans to seize an agenda that is totally alien to the agenda that was established in the election.

~Malcolm Wallop

Yes, many immigrants cherish the value of choice and opportunity and the value of education more than 7th or 8th generation Americans.

~Malcolm Wallop

The utter incompetence of the U.N. is literally incomprehensible.

~Malcolm Wallop

Doctrines provide an architecture for both Republican and Democrat presidents to carry out policies.

~Malcolm Wallop

Being American is not a matter of birth. We must practice it every day, lest we become something else.

~Malcolm Wallop

We are a studying nation. Scholarship from science is important to the whole world and those people need to be able to be safe and secure in what they do.

~Malcolm Wallop

Big government is the most corrupt industry in America.

~Malcolm Wallop

We are a communicating nation which needs access to space, access to the seas.

~Malcolm Wallop

If the Republicans think that by having stated and even achieved most of the Contract that they are therefore entitled to the acceptance and favor of the American voter, they're crazy.
