We are the gods of the atoms that make up ourselves but we are also the atoms of the gods that make up the universe.

~Manly Hall

Symbolism is the language of the Mysteries. By symbols men have ever sought to communicate to each other those thoughts which transcend the limitations of language.

~Manly Hall

Man's status in the natural world is determined, therefore, by the quality of his thinking.

~Manly Hall

An unhealthy mind, even in a healthy body, will ultimately destroy health.

~Manly Hall

Khem was an ancient name for the land of Egypt; and both the words alchemy and chemistry are a perpetual reminder of the priority of Egypt's scientific knowledge.

~Manly Hall

The way of heaven can be known and experienced through the heart.

~Manly Hall

There is no place for little minds in a great work

~Manly Hall

Symbols are oracular forms-mysterious patterns creating vortices in the substances of the invisible world.

~Manly Hall

The end of science is not to prove a theory, but to improve mankind.

~Manly Hall

If the infinite had not desired man to be wise, he would not have bestowed upon him the faculty of knowing.

~Manly Hall

It must be shown that self-seeking is out of fashion, and that the world is moving on to a larger conception of living.

~Manly Hall

The adoration of the sun was one of the earliest and most natural forms of religious expression. Complex modern theologies are merely involvements and amplifications of this simple aboriginal belief.

~Manly Hall

Experiences are the chemicals of life with which the philosopher experiments

~Manly Hall

Words are potent weapons for all causes, good or bad.

~Manly Hall

Moderation is the secret of survival.

~Manly Hall

Suicide thwarts the plan of the entity which sends out the personality. Fortunately, the entity is far beyond the reach of man's destructive tendencies.

~Manly Hall

In ancient times men fought with their right arms and defended with their left arms... ...the right side of the body was considered masculine and the left side feminine.

~Manly Hall

Man's security comes from within himself.

~Manly Hall

It is only a step from boredom to disillusionment, which leads naturally to self-pity, which in turn ends in chaos.
