All animals, including humans, have a right to lives of dignity and respect, without forced intrusions.

~Marc Bekoff

Although other animals may be different from us, this does not make them LESS than us

~Marc Bekoff

Often, the greater our ignorance about something, the greater our resistance to change.

~Marc Bekoff

Make ethical choices in what we buy, do, and watch. In a consumer-driven society our individual choices, used collectively for the good of animals and nature, can change the world faster than laws.

~Marc Bekoff

Animals are not property or "things" but rather living organisms, subjects of a life, who are worthy of our compassion, respect, friendship, and support.

~Marc Bekoff

The plural of anecdote is not data.

~Marc Bekoff

Humans are a part of nature, not apart from nature.

~Marc Bekoff

Some people say they love animals and yet harm them nonetheless; I'm glad those people don't love me.

~Marc Bekoff

Without close and reciprocal relationships with other animal beings, we're alienated from the rich, diverse, and magnificent world in which we live.

~Marc Bekoff

These enthusiasts often like to hang signs that say "Gone Fishin'" or "Gone Huntin'". But what these slogans really mean is "Gone Killing.

~Marc Bekoff

It's bad biology to rob nonhuman animals of their emotional lives.
