Each of my records has a different focus, a different theme.

~Marc Edwards

I am pretty detached from the local music crowd though.

~Marc Edwards

There's nothing remotely interesting to me about marketing music as a product.

~Marc Edwards

People are essentially losing their temper for things that have nothing to do with the act of driving.

~Marc Edwards

You can't get away from who you are I guess.

~Marc Edwards

My feeling is that nuclear is a distraction. It stops us doing what we all know we need to do invest urgently in renewables.

~Marc Edwards

To me, all war is failure for humanity, though it often is a bounty for commerce.

~Marc Edwards

They lyrical content has grown more introspective and less abstract. I don't know if that's good or bad... Sometimes it feels a little raw to be putting so much of myself out there.

~Marc Edwards

I probably had the most fun recording For Richer For Poorer in Nashville.

~Marc Edwards

I have always abhorred the business end of music.

~Marc Edwards

I followed most of the 80's bands into the 90's as most of those folks who hadn't moved away were all still active. However, there was a point when I lost track of the new bands coming up.

~Marc Edwards

I also spend a lot of time on political blogs, and music blogs getting things for my radio show.

~Marc Edwards

Cleveland is the place I grew up and lived much of my adult life, so it will always be a part of my soul.

~Marc Edwards

I pretty much ignored politics all through my 20s and 30s... I had other things on my mind... the band, finding a meaningful relationship, getting enough money to eat and pay the rent.
