

Marcel Dzama

Quotes

Art, School, Drawing, Color, Character, Artist, Believe, Albums, Film, Careers, Silent, Heartless, Yellow, Black And White, Men, Home, Humans, Body, Real, Important

I make art primarily for myself and to show my friends so I guess it's important to make art that they can connect to.

~Marcel Dzama

I've been very influenced by Inuit art especially some drawings and watercolors I've seen.

~Marcel Dzama

I had always loved Joseph Cornell and wanted to do something with dioramas.

~Marcel Dzama

I made a tin man costume with tin foil and furnace parts because I thought it would help me be more heartless.

~Marcel Dzama

The muted color scheme allows the occasional brighter yellow or red to pop out on the wall in a show, which I like.

~Marcel Dzama

I've been very fortunate in my art career. It's something I would never have expected.

~Marcel Dzama

My main influence are the other members of the Royal Art Lodge, we've drawn together enough that we can't help but influence each other.

~Marcel Dzama

I wouldn't consider myself an outsider artist because I have a university degree in painting.

~Marcel Dzama

The process of the body changing and making a whole human fascinates me.

~Marcel Dzama

I'm not a trained dancer in the slightest.

~Marcel Dzama

I actually prefer the silent black and white version of the Wizard Of Oz from the 20's.

~Marcel Dzama

I like all kinds of music but some of my all time favorites are P.I.L., Yoko Ono, T-Rex, and Anton Karas.

~Marcel Dzama

When I was a school kid I used to read lots of comics. This started me on drawing, I would make my own comics about my teddy bear whose name happened to be Ted.

~Marcel Dzama

Related Links:

- Art Quotes
- School Quotes
- Drawing Quotes
- Color Quotes
- Character Quotes
- Artist Quotes
- Believe Quotes
- Albums Quotes
- Film Quotes
- Careers Quotes
- Silent Quotes
- Heartless Quotes
- Yellow Quotes
- Black And White Quotes
- Men Quotes
- Home Quotes
- Humans Quotes
- Body Quotes
- Real Quotes
- Important Quotes