God is constantly on the move. I cannot stay where I am and follow God at the same time; responding requires movement.

~Margaret Feinberg

Prayer might not change things, but it will change my perspective of things. Prayer might not change the past, but inevitably, it changes the present.

~Margaret Feinberg

Sometimes you have to poke holes in the darkness until it bleeds light.

~Margaret Feinberg

Always remain suspicious that God is up to something good.

~Margaret Feinberg

Joy is a weapon we use to fight life's battles.

~Margaret Feinberg

When we fight back with joy, we awaken to the deepest reality of our identity as beloved, delightful children of God.

~Margaret Feinberg

I had been searching for joy in the relatively good times of life, now I had to find joy amidst darkness and agony.

~Margaret Feinberg

Worry is a subtle way of telling God that He's fallen asleep at the wheel and that things aren't under His authority, but ours.

~Margaret Feinberg

Joy emanates out of the abiding sense of God's fierce love for us.

~Margaret Feinberg

God sits enthroned, ready to listen, to help.

~Margaret Feinberg
