

Margot Robbie Quotes

People, Thinking, Roles, Hair, Play, Needs, Character, Years, Looks, Feet, Cities, Trying, Training, New York, Taken, Tree, Want, Water, Children, Kids

I became an actor so I can show you characters and never have to show you me.

~Margot Robbie

Everyone's like, 'overnight sensation.' It's not overnight. It's years of hard work.

~Margot Robbie

Playing a bad guy is always more fun than playing the good guy.

~Margot Robbie

When you look at movies, the lead girl is always gorgeous and thin. There is a stereotype that you need to look a certain way and when you get in the business you really feel the pressure.

~Margot Robbie

I try to remind myself that all of this could be over tomorrow, because I could wake up and magically be 35 feet tall and not be able to act in movies anymore.

~Margot Robbie

There are those who build careers and companies just out of being popular on Instagram, but there's nothing behind them.

~Margot Robbie

I just try to keep healthy more so than trying to be thin.

~Margot Robbie

My spirit animal is a monkey. Because I have really long arms and I like being up high.

~Margot Robbie

I send thank you notes, not emails, even if I'm staying at a friend's house or something. I'm very old school.

~Margot Robbie

Once people see you pulling off one role, they think you're a safe bet to do a similar role.

~Margot Robbie

It's fascinating to see how versatile New York City is. It lends itself to being so many different places!

~Margot Robbie

I know that my look is more "toothpaste model" as opposed to artsy, which sucks because I can play those roles.

~Margot Robbie

I love flying so much. I even airplane food. No one bothers you and your phone never goes off and you can't have emails go through. It's undisturbed.

~Margot Robbie

I feel much more comfortable either up in a tree, or underwater. That's where I feel the most zen.

~Margot Robbie

Obviously social media has had a massive impact on the fame game, but not in a positive way. But it can be for some.

~Margot Robbie

I feel like I'm pretty good at doing my own makeup. I've watched a lot of people do my makeup, so I've been able to gauge what looks good and what doesn't.

~Margot Robbie

I remember specific times and people in my life so much more clearly if I smell something that brings me back to them.

~Margot Robbie

Someone told me that you could learn to sing, and that there are muscles that if you build, you will sing.

~Margot Robbie

Every time I see a piano, I have this urge to play it.

~Margot Robbie

I have like three hairs left on my head. A hairstylist will come in and put all this fake hair in and it looks luscious and amazing. And I'm like, god, I feel a thousand times better.

~Margot Robbie

I don't want my Patronus to be a monkey! Even though that's totally what it is.

~Margot Robbie

I don't even know how to Direct Message someone on Instagram. I still write letters.

~Margot Robbie

New York is the coolest city. The place just never sleeps. It's amazing.

~Margot Robbie

I kind of left everyone behind in Australia - all my friends and my family and I had to break up with my boyfriend.

~Margot Robbie

The '60s are my favorite decade - with the Cold War, the women's movement. And then there's the music, the fashion, the clothes, the hair.

~Margot Robbie

Scent has become a way for me to differentiate characters.

~Margot Robbie

I make my friends pull up their profiles and I'm like, "Show me everything."

~Margot Robbie

There is something about being people from your home country in a different country. It bonds you together.

~Margot Robbie

No one in my family had ever done anything acting-wise or entertainment industry-wise.

~Margot Robbie

I always dress kind of monochromatic and very simple and all that kind of stuff.

~Margot Robbie

I have big feet. Do you know how embarrassing it is when you ask for a shoe and they look at you like, "No, we don't make these heels for Bigfoot, sorry."

~Margot Robbie

Technology still freaks me out a bit.

~Margot Robbie

You need to shower at the end of the day.

~Margot Robbie

I'm so weak. The stronger I get the more training I'll be able to do.

~Margot Robbie

It does feel bizarre, having someone in your work space who's so much younger than you.

~Margot Robbie

Living in London, the water is really harsh, and my hair got so bad as soon as I moved there. But you can't really avoid that.

~Margot Robbie

I think they've finally realized that women go to see movies as much as men do. Ticket sales are coming from them as well, so why not appeal to them? I think they're finding a way.

~Margot Robbie

When I'm not training for a role then I don't really train.

~Margot Robbie

I really need a hairstylist to do my hair if it's going to look good.

~Margot Robbie

I was in a movie for five minutes where I play tennis and I was given five tennis lessons for free. I never had a tennis lesson. I was like, that's awesome! When else would I have taken up tennis?

~Margot Robbie

Related Links:

- People Quotes
- Thinking Quotes
- Roles Quotes
- Hair Quotes
- Play Quotes
- Needs Quotes
- Character Quotes
- Years Quotes
- Looks Quotes
- Feet Quotes
- Cities Quotes
- Trying Quotes
- Training Quotes
- New York Quotes
- Taken Quotes
- Tree Quotes
- Want Quotes
- Water Quotes
- Children Quotes
- Kids Quotes