Nothing in life is to be feared, it is only to be understood. Now is the time to understand more, so that we may fear less.

~Marie Curie

First principle: never to let one's self be beaten down by persons or by events.

~Marie Curie

Be less curious about people and more curious about ideas.

~Marie Curie

Nothing in this world is to be feared... only understood.

~Marie Curie

You cannot hope to build a better world without improving the individuals.

~Marie Curie

A scientist in his laboratory is not a mere technician: he is also a child confronting natural phenomena that impress him as though they were fairy tales.

~Marie Curie

I never see what has been done; I only see what remains to be done.

~Marie Curie

Each of us must work for his own improvement, and at the same time share a general responsibility for all humanity.

~Marie Curie

We must have perseverance and above all confidence in ourselves.

~Marie Curie

The older one gets, the more one feels that the present must be enjoyed; it is a precious gift, comparable to a state of grace

~Marie Curie

Life is not easy for any of us. But what of that? We must have perseverance and above all confidence in ourselves.

~Marie Curie

I was taught that the way of progress was neither swift nor easy.

~Marie Curie

You can only analyze the data you have. Be strategic about what to gather and how to store it

~Marie Curie

Now is the time to understand more, so we fear less.

~Marie Curie

All my life through, the new sights of Nature made me rejoice like a child.

~Marie Curie

I am among those who think that science has great beauty.

~Marie Curie

I have frequently been questioned, especially by women, of how I could reconcile family life with a scientific career. Well, it has not been easy.

~Marie Curie

It was like a new world opened to me, the world of science, which I was at last permitted to know in all liberty.

~Marie Curie

I am one of those who think like Nobel, that humanity will draw more good than evil from new discoveries.

~Marie Curie

Just remember you will find that one special love that you know is right but for some reason just doesn't last

~Marie Curie

I have the best husband one could dream of; I could never have imagined finding one like him. He is a true gift of heaven, and the more we live together the more we love each other.

~Marie Curie

We must not forget that when radium was discovered no one knew that it would prove useful in hospitals.

~Marie Curie

Scientists believe in things, not in persons

~Marie Curie

It's always good to marry your best friend.

~Marie Curie

After all, science is essentially international, and it is only through lack of the historical sense that national qualities have been attributed to it.

~Marie Curie

I have no dress except the one I wear every day. If you are going to be kind enough to give me one, please let it be practical and dark so that I can put it on afterwards to go to the laboratory.

~Marie Curie

There are sadistic scientists who hurry to hunt down errors instead of establishing the truth.

~Marie Curie

In science we must be interested in things, not in persons.

~Marie Curie

It is my earnest desire that some of you should carry on this scientific work and keep for your ambition the determination to make a permanent contribution to science.

~Marie Curie

If it takes a hundred years, it will be a pity, but I will not cease to work for it as long as I live.

~Marie Curie

Life is not easy for any for us.

~Marie Curie

When one studies strongly radioactive substances special precautions must be taken. Dust, the air of the room, and one's clothes, all become radioactive.

~Marie Curie

Stability can only be attained by inactive matter.

~Marie Curie

Radium is not to enrich any one. It is an element; it is for all people.

~Marie Curie
