When you have a baby, love is automatic, when you get married, love is earned.

~Marie Osmond

If you're going to be able to look back on something and laugh about it, you might as well laugh about it now.

~Marie Osmond

Life can be real tough... you can either learn from your problems, or keep repeating them over and over.

~Marie Osmond

You can do everything you can to try to stop bad things from happening to you, but eventually things will happen, so the best prevention is a positive attitude.

~Marie Osmond

This is a serious, serious condition that is also called postpartum psychosis. And that's where, literally, you get so bad that you end up either hurting the baby or killing yourself.

~Marie Osmond

You marry at the level of your self-esteem, make sure you have self worth.

~Marie Osmond

I found for me that my safe place was work. I could control my environment. I became very fastidious and detailed, and wanted things a certain way.

~Marie Osmond

I have great faith in God. Without faith, I don't know how I would have been able to get through what I've been through.

~Marie Osmond

The good Lord made us all out of iron. Then he turns up the heat to forge some of us into steel.

~Marie Osmond

Being of service to others is what brings true happiness.

~Marie Osmond

I don't claim to know everything. I claim to be a seeker of knowledge.

~Marie Osmond

Never be too busy to listen to your instinctive feelings when something feels wrong.

~Marie Osmond

You need to be able to manage stress because hard times will come, and a positive outlook is what gets you through.

~Marie Osmond

That's what it is to be a grandma. All fun and no stress.

~Marie Osmond

We know well and we know chronically ill, but there is a whole bunch of gray in between where I think we can heal people before they become chronically sick. I believe our thoughts make us sick.

~Marie Osmond

I'll always be best known as Marie Osmond, but in my checking account and at home, I will gladly be Marie Craig.

~Marie Osmond

My mother never asked me to do anything she wouldn't do herself. She always taught by example.

~Marie Osmond

This is a physical thing that is fixable. I know, I'm a survivor. Believe me, there was no way I thought I could survive. There are answers out there that need to be found.

~Marie Osmond

What a cute man! Hey, I may be pregnant, but I can still see!

~Marie Osmond

My mother has always been my role model, and I believe my survival in the entertainment business is in large part due to my desire to be a strong woman like my mother. She is my hero.

~Marie Osmond

Tragedy plus time equals humor.

~Marie Osmond

Right now I don't call it the menopause, I call it men-on-pause.

~Marie Osmond

I learned a great lesson from my mother on her deathbed. She counseled me on the importance of taking care of myself so I wouldn't end up in an unhealthy body like she did.

~Marie Osmond

I have always lived the way I wanted regardless of whether or not it was popular.

~Marie Osmond

I feel blessed - I am a woman who has been able to work in the entertainment business for five decades. I don't want to age, but I would never take back a year for the wisdom I've gained in that time.
