Service is not something we endure on this earth so we can earn the right to live in the celestial kingdom. Service is the very fiber of which an exalted life in the celestial kingdom is made.

~Marion G. Romney

Pondering is, in my feeling, a form of prayer.

~Marion G. Romney

While the Lord will magnify us in both subtle and dramatic ways, he can only guide our footsteps when we move our feet.

~Marion G. Romney

Whenever I have a serious problem or some assignment of a creative nature...I always receive more assistance in the early morning hours than at any other time of the day.

~Marion G. Romney

The only motive strong enough to induce men to exercise the self control required by the religion of Jesus is love.

~Marion G. Romney

The key to happiness is to get the spirit and keep it.

~Marion G. Romney

Prayer is the means by which men communicate with God. Revelation is the means by which God communicates with men.

~Marion G. Romney

The whole problem is spirituality-not finances. Spiritually strong = welfare strong.

~Marion G. Romney

There is an interdependence between those who have and those who have not. The process of giving exalts the poor and humbles the rich. In the process, both are sanctified.

~Marion G. Romney

We will see the day when we live on what we produce.

~Marion G. Romney

It has always seemed somewhat paradoxical to me that we must constantly have the Lord command us to do those things which are for our own good.

~Marion G. Romney

The efficacy of our prayers depends on how much we care for one another.

~Marion G. Romney

Peace has been variously defined, but perhaps we might think of it as 'harmony within one's self, and with God and man.'

~Marion G. Romney

Receiving the Holy Ghost is the therapy which effects forgiveness and heals the sin-sick soul.

~Marion G. Romney

The prime duty of help to the poor by the Church is not to bring temporal relief to their needs, but salvation to their souls.

~Marion G. Romney

My soul has made its greatest growth as I have been driven to my knees by adversity and affliction.

~Marion G. Romney

Prayer is the instrument of miracles.

~Marion G. Romney

Forgiveness is as wide as repentance.

~Marion G. Romney

It is perfectly evident...that to thank the Lord in all things is not merely a courtesy, it is a commandment as binding upon us as any other commandment

~Marion G. Romney

...living the gospel of Jesus Christ is the price of-and the only way to-peace.

~Marion G. Romney

Self-Reliance is a prerequisite to the complete freedom to act.

~Marion G. Romney

But you don't need to worry. The Lord will never let his mouthpiece lead the people astray.
