If you're going to play it out of tune, then play it out of tune properly.

~Mark E. Smith

Blue cheese contains natural amphetamines. Why are students not informed about this?

~Mark E. Smith

I used to be psychic, but I drank my way out of it.

~Mark E. Smith

It's just like music when you reckon it up. It's like, listening to Pavement, it's just the Fall in 1985, isn't it? They haven't got an original idea in their heads.

~Mark E. Smith

I like to push people till I get the truth out of them. Get them drunk, or whatever. Then discover what they really think. Push them and push them and push them.

~Mark E. Smith

When I was 18 the vision was to make music that didn't exist, because everything else was so unsatisfactory.

~Mark E. Smith

I do feel like an outsider, but I don't lose any sleep over it.

~Mark E. Smith

I don't want security guards. I don't think security guards are particularly good for your writing.

~Mark E. Smith

Fear is something I try not to absorb.

~Mark E. Smith

A lot of musicians are really hard to deal with. They aren't as smart as me.

~Mark E. Smith

Every day is great for me. I dislike rose-coloured glasses.

~Mark E. Smith

My earliest memory is learning to read 'Muffin the Mule' when I was about three.

~Mark E. Smith

The thing with me. I can't stick musicians. I've thought about this. I can't stand them, and being stuck in a studio with them I think that's my strength I can hear what they can't.

~Mark E. Smith

I read daft history books. Sometimes the books I read are a bit crackers or strange.

~Mark E. Smith

The thing with me, I can't talk about my work. I find it very difficult.

~Mark E. Smith

I like to push people till I get the truth out of them.

~Mark E. Smith

I was picked on because I was timid. I had younger sisters; I couldn't turn to them for help. I didn't have an older brother.
