Teaching, the most noble profession, should be rewarded based on merit alone, not seniority.

~Mark Kostabi

It's very true that an artist who networks well will have better opportunities than one who doesn't network well. But great networking skills without great art won't change art history.

~Mark Kostabi

I'm an artist because that's what I was best at as a kid. It was fun... I continue to be an artist... for the freedom that an art career can bring. I don't need an alarm clock and I am my own boss.

~Mark Kostabi

I really believe in my work and in no way think I'm taking advantage of anyone. I feel generous when selling my art.

~Mark Kostabi

I'm not sure what [my latest works are] about but I'm convinced they're the best things I've done and I'm going to the world's best museums with them.

~Mark Kostabi

Do what you love. Go to a good art school and study with the best teachers. Move to New York and read Ask Mark Kostabi.

~Mark Kostabi

The press needs stories constantly. No need to bleed, just feed.
Branding will keep you standing... Get press not stress.

~Mark Kostabi

Artists of the world arise - it's time to dump your dealers.

~Mark Kostabi

There's too much negativity in the world. Staying positive is a better investment.

~Mark Kostabi

One secret to my success is that I am faithful to my dreams and don't cheat on my dreams by taking drugs or blaming others when things don't go right.

~Mark Kostabi

Things don't get tough in the studio. Sometimes things get tough outside the studio and going in the studio is a relief, a sanctuary, therapy.

~Mark Kostabi

My colors are logically chosen.

~Mark Kostabi

Ending lending is beginning winning.
