I haven't inherited the earth from my parents, I am borrowing it from my children.

~Mark Udall

It is deeply shocking and incomprehensible to me that despite volumes of documentation and living witnesses who can attest to the horrors of the Holocaust, there are still those who would deny it.

~Mark Udall

Any doctor will admit that any drug can have side effects, and that writing a prescription involves weighing the potential benefits against the risks.

~Mark Udall

Genuine dialogue, not rhetorical bomb-throwing, leads to progress.

~Mark Udall

Political differences will always generate a healthy debate, but over time the dialogue has become more hateful and at times violent.

~Mark Udall

There is no question that we must do more to secure our borders - but how we go about securing them is also important.

~Mark Udall

Stem cells have the potential to be used to treat and better understand some of the world's most deadly and disabling diseases.

~Mark Udall

I've come to the conclusion that military style weapons really don't have any place in our society. We ought to reinstate the assault weapons ban that served us well for 10 years from 1994 to 2004.

~Mark Udall

The new Congress needs to move quickly to strengthen the Army and Marines - not to send more troops to Iraq - but to rebuild our capacity to meet national security threats globally.

~Mark Udall

Our livelihood is intimately tied to the food we eat, water we drink and places where we recreate. That's why we have to promote responsibility and conservation when it comes to our natural resources.

~Mark Udall

Reform is not for the short-winded. I'm committed to making sure the Senate is more than just a graveyard for good ideas.

~Mark Udall

Truth be told, I'm much more comfortable in a pair of hiking boots or with a rack of climbing gear than in front of a laptop.

~Mark Udall

We really don't have a policy [on climate change]. There's a lot of rhetoric and not a lot of action.

~Mark Udall

It's my belief that, like every other American, gay and lesbian couples should be able to make a lifetime commitment to the person they love and protect their families.

~Mark Udall

I think most Americans would agree people should be treated equally and everyone ought to be able to pursue a fulfilling life with the ones they love.

~Mark Udall

I brag on the Democratic Party. We're libertarian on social issues, it's live and let live. Fiscally, we're conservative and responsible, and were environmentally conscious.

~Mark Udall

Good-faith re-examination of a position you've held in the past should be seen as a virtue, not a vice.

~Mark Udall

I support allowing gay couples to marry because of - not in spite of - my values. And many of those values are the same ones deeply held by those who do not believe in gay marriage.

~Mark Udall

It's tough to know the value of water until it's gone.

~Mark Udall

There is no getting around it; Congress is failing the American people.

~Mark Udall

The balance between freedom and security is a delicate one.

~Mark Udall

I believe climate change is real - and I believe we have to act to protect the climate as fast as we possibly can.
