My father said there were two kinds of people in the world: givers and takers. The takers may eat better, but the givers sleep better.

~Marlo Thomas

Every child deserves a chance at a life filled with love, laughter, friends and family.

~Marlo Thomas

Never face facts; if you do, you'll never get up in the morning.

~Marlo Thomas

One of the things about equality is not just that you be treated equally to a man, but that you treat yourself equally to the way you treat a man.

~Marlo Thomas

You know, theres endorphins in laughter, as there are endorphins in running in the park.

~Marlo Thomas

Women should know that they don't have to hang on to an old dream that has stopped nurturing them - that there is always time to start a new dream.

~Marlo Thomas

As much success came to him, my father stayed true to his promise. He built the hospital to help the most helpless children with catastrophic illnesses.

~Marlo Thomas

In the 1960s we were fighting to be recognized as equals in the marketplace, in marriage, in education and on the playing field. It was a very exciting, rebellious time.

~Marlo Thomas

Where will I be five years from now? I delight in not knowing. That's one of the greatest things about life its wonderful surprises.

~Marlo Thomas

We've been taught to believe that actions speak louder than words. But I think words speak pretty loud all of our lives; we carry these words in our head.

~Marlo Thomas

Fame lost its appeal for me when I went into a public restroom and an autograph seeker handed me a pen and paper under the stall door.

~Marlo Thomas

I wish someone would have told me that, just because I'm a girl, I don't have to get married.

~Marlo Thomas

If you want to get somewhere in six months, you're not going to get there by wishing it.

~Marlo Thomas

A man has to be Joe McCarthy to be called ruthless . . . all a woman has to do is put you on hold.

~Marlo Thomas

Nothing is either all masculine or all feminine except having sex.

~Marlo Thomas

It's fascinating for us women to begin looking at our lives in five-year plans. It really does help you keep on track. If that's too hard, start with a two-year plan.

~Marlo Thomas

Losing my parents was probably the hardest and deepest blow from which I've had to recover.

~Marlo Thomas

Living with these teenage boys allowed me to see how much their psyches were like their girl counterparts. They were more familiar to me than I would have thought.

~Marlo Thomas

First you have to have a dream.

~Marlo Thomas

I think loss of loved ones is the hardest blow in life.

~Marlo Thomas

A feminist is a man or woman who already knows for a fact that men and women are equal and wants society to wake up to that fact, so the world can stop operating at half-strength.

~Marlo Thomas

The Golden Girls certainly proved that there was a large audience for a show about older women.

~Marlo Thomas

It's important to think big, but you've got to work small.

~Marlo Thomas

Be who you are. Otherwise, you end up committing suicide. You end up marrying people when you shouldn't be marrying them and having terrible, secret lives.

~Marlo Thomas

You can't be happy, if you're not free and you're not fulfilling yourself.

~Marlo Thomas

Despite our ever-connective technology, neither Skype nor Facebook - not even a telephone call - can come close to the joy of being with loved ones in person.

~Marlo Thomas

If you really need to, you have to make it happen.

~Marlo Thomas

People really want to do something good. You just have to show them where it is.

~Marlo Thomas

What I love about the theater is the work ethic. I grew up with it.

~Marlo Thomas

I know George Burns was a very happy man.

~Marlo Thomas

Marriage is like a vacuum cleaner. You stick it to your ear and it sucks out all your energy and ambition.

~Marlo Thomas

One woman is a pest and two women is a team, but three women or more is a coalition. If you can bring a lot of people together as a coalition, you can get a lot changed.

~Marlo Thomas

It's so important to raise people to grow up to be who they are and not be forced to be who they're not. What an awful thing to do to people - it's like being in prison.

~Marlo Thomas

It's because it was at a time when women didn't have any power. It was so unusual for a young woman in her 20s to have power that I seized the power but tried not to flaunt it.

~Marlo Thomas

I was an educated girl. I'd done very well in school. I had a good point average and graduated from USC as an English teacher. My dad didn't even finish high school.

~Marlo Thomas

I think that there's got to be a comic gene in some way, but it's so much about it is how you grow up.

~Marlo Thomas

There's no doubt about it... I was born a feminist.

~Marlo Thomas

In my work, there's a tremendous amount of rejection and waves of fertile and fallow times.

~Marlo Thomas

My father (Danny Thomas) used to tell me there are two kinds of people, the takers and the givers. 'The takers sometimes eat better,' he would say, 'but the givers always sleep better.'

~Marlo Thomas

Chiropractic solved my neck and shoulder pains; it put me back on my feet. I think chiropractic is great!

~Marlo Thomas

If it's one thing we learned from the first book, it's that you don't have to be a prizefighter, or a world-renowned architect, or a concert violinist to have been affected by the power of words.

~Marlo Thomas

People don't want to be bothered, if they're not being pressured to change. You have to push people. You have to be the agitator that makes the pearl.
