If you're going to start something-if it's worth starting-then it's worth finishing. That's what I live by.

~Marshall Faulk

There's no fast track, no easy track, especially from where I came from. You try to take the most of it and learn from it and hope others learn from it. That's what it is about.

~Marshall Faulk

My vision is my best attribute. I can see everything.

~Marshall Faulk

If you understand what the other team is trying to do to stop you, it makes your job easier.

~Marshall Faulk

I didn't always walk that straight line. I'm not going to say that I'm an angel. But I made some right decisions along the way.

~Marshall Faulk

Once it's in you to being a starter, you always want to be that. But you understand the circumstances and you understand what you can and can't do. And that's the reality of it.

~Marshall Faulk

I try to tell the kids, Im not trying to run away from where I came from.

~Marshall Faulk

Ozzie Newsome hit a home run by drafting Bernard Pierce. He is a great compliment to Ray Rice.

~Marshall Faulk

Knowledge relaxes me. Football is all about playing faster. You play faster when you know more.

~Marshall Faulk

Once the game begins, I play to that song in my head. I run to rhythm, and that allows my mind to be free.

~Marshall Faulk

I think as a kid I never really understood the magnitude of a hurricane and what it could do.

~Marshall Faulk

Going in is really more of an acknowledgment that kids in poverty, in their situations, can get out of it, and it doesn't always come from sports.

~Marshall Faulk

Today, the Ravens answered: What is our identity? 'We are the same old team. We can play the same style of football.

~Marshall Faulk

If Russell Wilson wins this game... He starts to creep into the conversation of how we talk about Tom Brady, how we talk about Peyton Manning, Drew Brees, and Aaron Rodgers.

~Marshall Faulk

The disconnect between [offensive coordinator] Todd Haley and [quarterback] Ben Roethlisberger is so blatant you can just see it.
