I want to show everyone that if you pursue your dreams, they can come true no matter what. That's what I want to do.

~Martin Garrix

I don't want to just be an artist for one country, I want to produce for the world.

~Martin Garrix

I love playing music no matter where it is.

~Martin Garrix

When I was nine, ten, I was super young, but I installed a program on my computer so I could start producing music.

~Martin Garrix

I get inspired by a lot, not just one type of music or so. I listen to a lot of different music, and love a lot of artists. So, I can get inspired by anything.

~Martin Garrix

I would like to collaborate with Lana Del Rey . She just has the perfect voice! I love it.

~Martin Garrix

I can sleep ANYWHERE! I just love to sleep.

~Martin Garrix

If I have an idea in my head, within no time it's into the computer, it may take more time to make it sound right, but that's the only issue.

~Martin Garrix

Of course it's super special to create your own records; it really is a part of my self.

~Martin Garrix

In Europe, it's more common to hear aggressive dance tracks on the radio.

~Martin Garrix

It still feels unreal sometimes. It all happened so fast, like an explosion you know. But I am really hyped about the success of 'Animals' and 'Wizard'.

~Martin Garrix

I learned a lot about the business side of the industry and some new production tools. It's getting more and more difficult, because of my exploding gig schedule.

~Martin Garrix

Reworking other tracks is also quite cool.

~Martin Garrix

America is new to instrumental dance tracks on the radio, we were all so surprised "Animals" did so well on the radio.

~Martin Garrix

I promised to finish school, so I'll figure it out I guess. Besides, I'm on a special school for musicians and artists, so I'm not the only one with this life style.

~Martin Garrix

Radio helps DJs break into a whole different audience. Radio has so much power. And that's my mission: to not only break into the EDM audience, but to break also into the mainstream audience.
