Passover and Easter are the only Jewish and Christian holidays that move in sync, like the ice skating pairs we saw during the winter Olympics.

~Marvin Olasky

The holy land was supposed to be spotless, a serious equivalent of Disneyland in which not a single candy wrapper is to stay on the ground for more than a few minutes.

~Marvin Olasky

More people need to understand the games secular liberals play. Here's one rule-of-thumb: No matter how bad a story sounds - particularly if it sounds bad - recognize the pattern of defamation.

~Marvin Olasky

The data, however, do indicate that Christians who see Jews through a 17th-century lens, believing that most are thoroughly religious, are thoroughly wrong.

~Marvin Olasky

But to understand what it means to be strong and courageous, Christians should look to the person of Christ.

~Marvin Olasky

Baseball needs to put the steroids era behind it by having and enforcing tough rules against all kinds of artificial advantages, so that spring can return.

~Marvin Olasky

I grew up Jewish, became an atheist and a Marxist, and 28 years ago, at age 26, became a Christian.

~Marvin Olasky

Today, unless women gain jobs and athletic scholarships commensurate with their percentage of the population, feminists scream discrimination.

~Marvin Olasky

Powerful groups with anti-Christian worldviews dominate major media and major educational institutions.

~Marvin Olasky

I still favor alternatives to governmental race-based preferences.

~Marvin Olasky

Since governmental quotas expand bureaucratic power, provoke a backlash and are unfair to individuals, we need to find a better way to increase minority opportunities.

~Marvin Olasky

Philanthropic humility is necessary if a giver is to do more good than harm, but it is not sufficient - philanthropic prudence is also needed.

~Marvin Olasky

A job should employ God-given talents in a way that glorifies Him.

~Marvin Olasky

Materialist philosophies that treat human beings as machines or animals possess the high ground in our culture - academia, the most powerful media and many of our courts.

~Marvin Olasky

Those who believe in the importance of serving others should lead the way by fighting against the temptation we all have, and maybe especially as we age, to close in upon ourselves.

~Marvin Olasky

Many journalists seem to desire 'liberation' from Christian roots.

~Marvin Olasky

Many American Muslims are peaceful and define jihad primarily as an internal struggle to improve.

~Marvin Olasky

I don't know the right number of immigrants to let in.

~Marvin Olasky

We do not increase compassion by expanding it to cover anything. Instead, we kill a good word by making it mean too much, and nothing.

~Marvin Olasky

On sensitive issues, talk isn't cheap - it takes real courage to pry open topics nailed shut.

~Marvin Olasky

Those who give of themselves rarely regret it.

~Marvin Olasky

It starts this way: The worth of a job is not defined by what it allows you to do when you're not working.

~Marvin Olasky

[The disestablishment of religion] may not have been such a good idea.

~Marvin Olasky

Lack of understanding, along with outright anti-Christian prejudice, leads to journalistic amazement or horror at the supposed self-deception of those who do see a spiritual realm.

~Marvin Olasky

And yet, those who speak loudly and call anyone who disagrees with them a wimp often do a disservice to the cause they are promoting.
