The heaven I witnessed was so pure, love-filled, and magnificent that I did not want to return to earth.

~Mary C. Neal

No matter what the circumstances, we can be grateful that God fulfills His promises, that our faith is sufficient to sustain us, and that our eternal life is assured.

~Mary C. Neal

Faith allows us to confidently walk with God into a future filled with joy; one that can become an extraordinary and amazing adventure.

~Mary C. Neal

Later in the day, a second verse became clear to my vision. It read: "Pray without ceasing."

~Mary C. Neal

Live a life of prayer, giving glory to God and continually listening for His guidance.

~Mary C. Neal

The more we love, the more love we have to offer. So it is with God's love for us. It is inexhaustible.

~Mary C. Neal

When you are doing God's will everything seems to happen without much effort or many obstacles.

~Mary C. Neal

Even when it feels as if we are being crushed by earthly troubles, we can remain joyful. If we keep our focus on God, our spirit cannot be trampled.

~Mary C. Neal

God promises to open the door when we knock, and to always welcome us back into his love, no matter how far we have strayed.

~Mary C. Neal

I began to see my life and each breath I am given as a living prayer to God and a way to pray for others for our world.

~Mary C. Neal

Live a life of gratitude, giving thanks in all circumstances.

~Mary C. Neal

Before we return to Heaven, our real home, we have an incredible opportunity on Earth to face challenges that will help us learn, grow and to become more Christ-like in the fruits of our spirit.

~Mary C. Neal

Even when we are frustrated by our inability to understand a circumstance or event, there are unseen angels bringing comfort and protection as directed by the wisdom of God.

~Mary C. Neal

Angels are spirit beings who are mentioned more than 250 times in both the Old Testament and the New Testament of the Bible.

~Mary C. Neal

Jesus conveyed the impression of complete love, compassion, kindness, and infinite patience.

~Mary C. Neal

By freely choosing to believe God's promises, a person's faith may be more strongly embraced and, therefore, less likely to falter in times of struggle, sadness, or other such difficulties.

~Mary C. Neal

They care for, protect, and guide God's people, frequently intervening or bring messages to people from God.

~Mary C. Neal

God doesn't need verbal language for communication.

~Mary C. Neal

The last verse that became clear to my vision that day was this: "Give thanks in all circumstances, for this is the will of God's in Christ Jesus for you."

~Mary C. Neal

I then carefully searched through the pages until I was able to find the verse that was crystal clear... It read: "Rejoice always."
