I agree that we must expand opportunities for retirement saving, but we must not undermine this worthy effort with a flawed privatization scheme that takes the 'security' out of Social Security.

~Mary Landrieu

The South has not always been the friendliest place for African-Americans.

~Mary Landrieu

A penny saved is not a penny earned if at the end of the day you still owe a quarter.

~Mary Landrieu

Our solutions must be beyond anything we have ever considered. We should not be afraid to try bold new approaches.

~Mary Landrieu

The high price of health care in this country is a serious issue that demands serious attention. Putting limits on damages have little or no effect on skyrocketing malpractice insurance rates.

~Mary Landrieu

The president's budget request today demonstrates his unwillingness to come clean on the true costs of his agenda. A penny saved is not a penny earned if at the end of the day you still owe a quarter

~Mary Landrieu

Do you know how many houses all of the nonprofits have built? No more than 5,000 in five years. Do you know how many we lost? 200,000.

~Mary Landrieu

From politics and business to music and food to culture, African-Americans have helped to shape our state's colourful past and its future.

~Mary Landrieu

If I had to vote for the bill again, I'd vote for it tomorrow.

~Mary Landrieu

I like being powerful. I hope it doesn't go to my head. If somebody's going to have it, it might just as soon be me. There's always power, and it's just a matter of in whose hands it falls.

~Mary Landrieu

Democracy still has a real hope and chance in Iraq, and true freedom in this country would be the greatest testament to those who gave their lives for it

~Mary Landrieu

A budget should reflect the values and priorities of our nation and its people

~Mary Landrieu

If you want to know how many prison cells to build, look at the number of third graders who can't read.
