Five years is a long time to play one part.

~Mary McCormack

I love Los Angeles. I love when people make fun of it. I think, 'Good, don't come.' All the jokes about it feel out of date.

~Mary McCormack

I think we've all experienced sort of becoming who we are as a reaction to what we come from.

~Mary McCormack

Most women get pregnant and even though it's a challenge physically and uncomfortable, they generally wanted to be pregnant.

~Mary McCormack

I'm from durable stock. I'm made to work. I'm Irish.

~Mary McCormack

I can be a little acerbic.

~Mary McCormack

If you're a caretaker, who are you when there's no one else to take care of?

~Mary McCormack

I always want to work.

~Mary McCormack

You won't believe what our kids are eating in the public schools. It's just nuts.

~Mary McCormack

There's nothing more fun than acting on stage with a live audience and that immediate feedback.

~Mary McCormack

I eat anything, especially sweets. Chocolate, cookies, and I love mint-chip ice cream.

~Mary McCormack

I've done an informal, anecdotal survey about marriage, and I've found no evidence that it brings happiness.

~Mary McCormack

I think it's good for moms to work. I have three daughters, so I like them to see me working and doing something I'm passionate about.

~Mary McCormack

I'm not the most delicate - I'm not the most graceful person, and I like playing a sport where being not delicate and not graceful is actually a good thing.

~Mary McCormack

Really, I'm just a simple girl from Jersey.
