The fashionable woman wears clothes. The clothes don't wear her.

~Mary Quant

Only paper flowers are afraid of the rain.

~Mary Quant

Risk it, go for it. Life always gives you another chance, another go at it. It's very important to take enormous risks.

~Mary Quant

Fashion is not frivolous. It is a part of being alive today.

~Mary Quant

Rules are invented for lazy people who don't want to think for themselves.

~Mary Quant

Fashion, as we knew it, is over; people wear now exactly what they feel like wearing.

~Mary Quant

Fashion is a tool... to compete in life outside the home. People like you better, without knowing why, because people always react well to a person they like the looks of.

~Mary Quant

Being young is greatly overestimated ... Any failure seems so total. Later on you realize you can have another go.

~Mary Quant

Fashion should be a game.

~Mary Quant

One of the things I've learned is never to horde ideas, because either they are not so relevant or they've gone stale. Whatever it is, pour it out.

~Mary Quant

A woman is as young as her knees.

~Mary Quant

All a designer can do is to anticipate a mood before people realize that they are bored. It is simply a matter of getting bored first

~Mary Quant

Fashion is a tool... to compete in life outside the home

~Mary Quant

Having money is rather like being a blond. It is more fun but not vital.

~Mary Quant

Snobbery has gone out of fashion, and in our shops you will find duchesses jostling with typists to buy the same dress.

~Mary Quant

The gods gave man fire and he invented fire engines. They gave him love and he invented marriage.

~Mary Quant

Good taste is death. Vulgarity is life.
