For me, being vulnerable is asking for help from other people whatever it may be.

~Mason Jennings

There's the kind of love where being around someone makes you feel energized. Just being around them gives you more energy than less.

~Mason Jennings

The seeds that we speed into life to be trees, will soon become fallen if thier roots aren't deep.

~Mason Jennings

The past is beautiful / like the darkness between the fireflies.

~Mason Jennings

I am really concerned about all of the chemicals. Global warming is another huge one, but the amount of chemicals being used in like laundry detergents and fertilizers is concerning.

~Mason Jennings

The increase in chemicals and the increase in technology, like wi-fi and cell phone use that's going through our bodies all of the time is something that is big on my radar.

~Mason Jennings

Meditation is the one thing I do every day - meditate, pray. I do reading in the morning and try to center myself. I play music every day because that is very centering.

~Mason Jennings

I like having a song in my head that's never been heard and then going into a studio and recording it and hearing it exist in the world. It's a magical part. Filled with wonder.

~Mason Jennings

A unique, personal music that lights up the stage with its joy and enthusiasm.
