When you compare yourself to others, you miss the miracle of who you are.

~Mastin Kipp

Step into giving. Purpose is about cultivating something within YOU and then GIVING it away to other people.

~Mastin Kipp

If you want it, become it.

~Mastin Kipp

Living on purpose is a lifestyle, a way of being and a lifelong spiritual practice that will refine your Soul. This isn't a 10-day or 30-day plan. This is a lifelong adventure!

~Mastin Kipp

Trust that The Uni-verse knows your bills, knows you need to eat and knows your heart much better than even you do, so keep facing your fears and limiting beliefs daily.

~Mastin Kipp

Living your purpose will require a HUGE amount of faith, courage, tenacity and perseverance.

~Mastin Kipp

I've always said it's important to take advice from people who have what you want because otherwise, people are just guessing.

~Mastin Kipp

One way to know you are REALLY on track is when people begin to doubt or "hate on" what you are doing. It's a natural part of the process.

~Mastin Kipp

Don't see haters as a reason to give up; instead see them as a sign that you are starting to become successful.

~Mastin Kipp

Find your purpose by excavating and tying together the common threads of your happy memories by focusing on the emotions you felt.

~Mastin Kipp

Hang with people who support and uplift you.

~Mastin Kipp

When we start to believe stories about how life works that come from anywhere else but within, we have set ourselves up for a crash course in getting a spiritual wake-up call!

~Mastin Kipp

We don't live abundant and happy lives in isolation or by being takers. So by giving away your purpose to others, you will find that others want to GIVE to you, too.

~Mastin Kipp

If you believe that the economy has more power over you than GRACE does, then you will buy into that story and start to live that life.

~Mastin Kipp

Remember - purpose is shared with others.

~Mastin Kipp

Live by faith, not by sight.
